

In the shoes of a scholarship recipient

THÉO FAUVIAUX

19 years old

Bachelor in International Culinary Arts Management

“ My name is Théo Fauviaux, and I'm from Bordeaux. After initially choosing a mainstream Scientific Baccalaureate programme, I decided to switch to the STHR stream specialising in Hotel and Catering. I'm currently in the first year of a Bachelor's degree in International Culinary Arts Management at Institut Paul Bocuse.

Ever since my childhood I've been passionate about cooking but also about art in general. I appreciate as much street graffiti as I do Van Gogh's paintings.

I chose to enrol at Institut Paul Bocuse because it is a dream for me and a logical continuation of my passion and my decision to reorient my studies.

Since my arrival at the Institute, it's impossible for me to pinpoint a single outstanding souvenir. In fact, they are all memorable in their own way. Meeting professionals in the profession is very rewarding. However, if I had to choose one, I would choose the day we brought cakes to the elderly at the Écully retirement home. We saw these elderly people smiling and I then realised why I wanted to do this job!

The bursary from the G&G Péliesson Foundation has allowed me to save a lot of money on the bank loan I had to take out. This is why I thank our benefactors, they helped me make my dream come true.

And thanks to them, people who normally would not be able to, are joining Institut Paul Bocuse.
